

EARLIER. BETTER. PASS IT ON.

Give your calves the best protection colostrum can provide. Early vaccination with Scour Bos[®], at 8-10 weeks before calving, gives cows time to produce colostrum with the broadest, most enriched defense against scours. That way, they pass on stronger, long-lasting protection for healthier calves and higher weaning weights. Talk to your veterinarian about the advantage of vaccinating earlier with Scour Bos.

SCOUR BOS | EARLIER | BETTER | LONGER

SCOUR BOS[®]

